

Snapdragon Red

"The BEST pixie around is comin' through! I am unstoppable, invincible, and – OW!"

You've got a human-sized ego in a Pixie-sized body, with a voice to match. You're utterly convinced that you're the Smartest, and the Coolest, and the Most Graceful There Is – and you'll never let anyone forget it. Actions speak louder than words, though, which is why you're prepared to demonstrate your skill at the slightest hint of a challenge. This admittedly leads to you getting squashed more often than your friends, but whatever – you're tough, you can take it!

Vital Statistics

Average Voume: +20 dBA

Greatest Success: Accidentally knocking over a sunflower into a human's face.

Favourite Human Invention: Mirrors.

Quirks

Hot-Blooded

Everything's a competition to you, and you play to win. This Quirk helps whenever you're participating in an "official" contest of skill – or whenever you can turn something into an official contest of skill!

Noisy

You can't seem to do anything without making a racket. You even sleep loudly. This Quirk helps whenever you need to shout someone down or make yourself the centre of attention.

Powers

Flight

You have a sturdy pair of beetle wings that allow you to fly.

Resilient

Pixies are annoyingly hard to squash. You gain +5 to your Stress Limit. (This is already taken into account on your character sheet.)
